Top places to visit & shop nearby

Wincanton

Our nearest town and just six miles from the house, here you will find pretty much everything you need for your stay. Supermarket shopping can be done at Morrison or Lidl on the outskirts while in the centre of town there is an excellent deli providing all sorts of treats, Clementina's containing the eclectic range of stock that a hardware shop should hold, and the excellent and ever cheerful butcher, Andrew Barclay, at the top of the High Street.

Sherborne and Castle Cary

The lovely abbey town of Sherbourne is around ten miles from the house and the attractive Castle Cary is four miles; both are an easy drive away and have a good range of small individual shops, ideal for browsing and buying a present or two. Don't forget to find the lock-up in Castle Cary and meet Ethlebert and Ethleald, King Alfred's eldest brothers, buried in the same grave in Sherborne Abbey. Both towns have very helpful tourist information offices filled with ideas of things to do and places to visit in the area.

Bath

With its Roman and Georgian heritage, a visit to Bath is a must if you haven't been previously. It's oozing with history, has an excellent theatre, Costume Museum, Assembly Rooms (once presided over by the exacting Beau Nash), Pump Rooms where you can have the dubious pleasure of trying the waters; Roman Baths (a wonderful natural spa for swimming), many fantastic shops and even boasts a Jamie Oliver bistro. If you don't feel like driving the 30 odd miles, try catching the train from Castle Cary. If driving, though, the Park and Ride is certainly worth seriously considering.

Somerset

Is the true home of Cheddar Cheese and international award-winning cheese makers abound locally - Montgomery, Westcombe Dairy, Quicks and Keens to name but a few. Dorset Blue Vinney, (unique in the world) is made just across the border by the Davies family. Somerset also produces wonderful cider, Kingston Black from Julian Temperley being one of the best.

Wells

Is the smallest city in England and its cathedral is arguably the most beautiful building in Europe. The graceful scissor arch dates from the 14th century and was built hastily to hold up the tower when it was in danger of collapsing and remains to this day.
